

Workshop on Coaching and Mentoring 18.05.2009

In my presentation I would like to share with you some of the experiences I have had as a consultant and project leader in programmes for women within organisations. In addition to that, I would like to discuss women's "inner" and "outer" strategies as players in academic life – as I have met and helped to develop them in my practise as a coach and mentor.

Anette Wolthers